Rates and Submission Information

Submission information for the Isis Scrolls bi-monthly print publication. We put out seven issues a year, six of which contain inspiring, educational submissions about healing, self-empowerment, and spirituality. We accept submissions of articles, artwork, poetry and advertising at any time. These are the final deadlines for each issue. Once a year we publish our Annual Healing Arts Guide, which has special pricing listed below.

Author Bios

Regarding the submission of author bios including contact information. Isis invites authors to include a short biography at the end of article submissions for the Scrolls, at no cost. This information is meant to personalize the writer for our readers and provide a context for the information they present.

The New Change will be: Any biographies printed with articles that contain the author's contact information will now be considered a form of advertising and we will request a nominal $20 fee.

No Extra Charge for authors who have chosen to pay for a business card (or larger) sized advertisement in addition to submitting an article. You can still have your contact information included in the biographies at no additional costs.

Practitioner Pages Strip Ad format Offers you a way to introduce or re-introduce your self to the community. We can help you put this ad together. It is a 2 x 7 1/4 inch ad that holds about 50-75 words and a picture. A great way to say a little something more about who you are and what you do.

We accept submissions of article, stories, poems and artwork all year long. Submission is no guarantee of print but we do our best to include everything we can. We often get more submissions than we can fit into an issue. We will hold over submissions until they fit nicely into the evolving project that the Isis Scrolls is. We edit everything we receive and if there are major editing questions or suggestions we will run those by you. There seems to be an organic theme that develops for each issue.

We are currently focusing on expanding our Scrolls readership. This means reaching out to people who may know little or nothing about who we are, or even about holistic healing. Please keep these new readers in mind as you write.

Please submit by email at isis_scroll@earthlink.net. We will confirm receipt so if you don't hear from us try again. Word document is the best format. For artwork, jpeg or PDF is preferred. We can resize, crop anything or scan in hard copies.

In the summer we publish our Annual Healing Arts Guide. This issue offers an in-depth look at the many skilled and gifted members of our healing community. It consists of profiles written by our healing arts practitioners, describing who they are and what modalities and services they offer.

The Guide is free and is distributed throughout Humboldt, Del Norte and Mendocino counties for the entire year. We will be printing up at least 8,000 copies this year with an expected readership, conservatively estimated, to be around of 30,000. This issue is an important resource for anyone who is looking to actively take an active role in his or her own health and well-being. It very well received and used all year long by our community.

The 2014 Guide will be our largest issue to date with over 100 full color pages, featuring profiles on about 135 participating healing art practitioners. The magazine is wrapped in a beautiful full color glossy cover. Who knows what 2015 will bring!

The total price is:

$175. for one column (1/2 page, 3 1/2 x 9") (non-glossy)

$275. for a full page, 7 x 9" (non-glossy)

Payment plans are available.

$450. Inside front or inside back cover (glossy)

$650 Back Cover (glossy)

Subject to publisher approval.

We can be reached at 707-825-8300.

We maintain private healing practices and are often in session, so you will most likely get our answering machine but leave us a message or drop us an email and we will get back to you.

Thank you,
Maya Cooper
